

Going Full Circle

All that Hope gives to women and families is done unconditionally. When one of them rises up and gives back to Hope to bless others, that is unexpected and special. It makes us so proud of them! Such acts of “full circle grace” are becoming more common for Hope. It’s another result of the growth women experience through the Parenting Initiative.

Sometimes it’s a new baby swing and note left on our doorstep. It’s the armloads of stuff Andrea* brought in from a family baby shower saying, “It’s more than I need; I want others to have it.” It’s the inquiries about how they can bless others that need help. It’s ALL of the baby and momma goods that so many have brought back to us.

Many of our patients stay in touch. They drop in. The relationship matters as much to them as to us. This is one visible part of the growth we see in Hope’s patients as they press forward into the adventure of life. What a joy to see it!

Keeping Everyone Safe

The next time you come to Hope you’ll experience our new security entrance. Being located on Market Street can be an adventure. We’re grateful, for the sake of our patients and our staff, to now have some control over who enters the building. Please do come by Hope anytime — we promise to let you in! (But please come to the front door and ring the doorbell first.)

Fruitful Partnership

The beginning of last year we joined the Oregon Bottledrop Give program for non-profits as another way for donors to support Hope. Your bottles and cans brought in $1,000 last year and all of that went directly to our patient services. We still have a steady flow of donors stopping by the clinic to pick up blue bags and funds being transferred from personal Bottledrop accounts. Let’s see if we can double that $1,000 this year!

Caring for Our Donors A note from Executive Director, Mike Reid

At Hope we do not take the term “partner” lightly. Deep in our hearts, we embrace that we’re all in this together. We know how committed our financial donors are to the lives of the unborn. We know you understand that every woman is worthy of respect and unconditional compassion.

We care for our partners as brothers and sisters in Christ—remembering you in our prayer time, grieving with you during times of loss and rejoicing with you during good times. We are honored by your faithful service to the women, babies and families that Hope serves. Our care for you is the catalyst for an occasional phone call or email—to know how YOU are doing without expectation of a gift of support.

I am always up for a cup of coffee to get better acquainted. Please contact me at mike@hopeforsalem.org. And thanks for being a Hope Partner!

An Awesome Team

We're often reminded how faithful God is to bring just the right people to Hope at just the right time. With all the growth that's happened at Hope the last few years, the Lord has assembled an incredible group of people, full of compassion and care for the women and families He brings through the doors. From Patient services and Parenting Initiative staff, to the Development Department and Administrative staff, God has filled each individual role and provided for every staff need. We're grateful for the opportunity to serve with each other under the leadership of the Almighty.

VOLUNTEER MENTORS & ADVOCATES NEEDED!

Hope Needs You

When a woman steps through the front door at Hope, she encounters genuine love and compassion. For some patients it is their first time experiencing unconditional acceptance. Our staff and volunteers meet our patients right where they are and then get to show them beautiful possibilities. Hope freely gives truth and love together. Not only do we see God change lives—we get to be part of His process in doing so.

Hope has need of more volunteer advocates and mentors who are willing to share from their overflow. Could this be you? Our next volunteer training will occur in April 2023. Contact Beth at beth@hopeforsalem.org or at 503-364-2464 for more information or to receive an application.
